Jackson Flag Day.
Mrs. R. T. Meade, president of Petersburg Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, has appointed committees of the chapter, and assigned them to various points in the city for duty to-morrow in soliciting and receiving donations for the Stonewall Jackson memorial. It seems assured that every citizen of Petersburg will be wearing Jackson flag to-morrow, and that the Daughters will realize a handsome sum in voluntary donations.

Petersburg's New Hotel.
The Petersburg Investment Corporation expects very soon to invite bids for the erection of the new hotel on West Tabb Street, on the site of the present New Shirley Hotel. The new structure, it is said, will be eight stories high, and will cost approximately $200,000. Plans for the hotel submitted by a number of architects are in the hands of the board of directors of the corporation for consideration and selection. The lease of the New Shirley has ended and the building will be closed in a few days.

Offered His Services.
F. F. Wawner, for the past ten years a citizen of Petersburg, and for twenty-five years engaged in the manufacture of fireworks, a native of Germany and a veteran of the German army, recently wrote to the War Department at Washington, stating these facts, and offering his services in the event of war with Mexico. He offers to go up in the aeroplane and drop bombs on the enemy, providing the government will take care of his family in case of his death. The department has responded, expressing appreciation of his offer and stating that his letter would be placed on file for reference in case his service is needed.

General News Notes.
The Misses Mary Sterling Smith and Fannie Smith will be the hostesses at a tango dancant to be given to-morrow night at the Library Hall, to which some forty or fifty young couples have been invited.

Thirty-one licenses for the sale of liquor during the year beginning May 1 were issued yesterday and to-day by the Hastings Court, and others are being issued. No objection of consequence was offered in any case.

A party of six women and three men, Holmans, arrived here this morning from their country. They will settle in Prince George, in the neighborhood of Disputanta.

W. R. Flournoy and Mrs. Rosa Bain, of South Richmond, were married yesterday at the Washington Street church parsonage, by the Rev. Dr.
Senter.

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alice Wells in Richmond, by the Rev. J. M. Howland, Rufus W. Burton, of Chesterfield, and Miss Emma L. Walfrey, of this city, were married.

Within the next few days the Chamber of Commerce will send out a circular to every member requesting confidential suggestions as to needed general and special improvements in the city to be considered by the chamber in its enlarged plans for the development of the city.

G. F. Babby, a farmer of Ohio, was in the city yesterday. He is on the lookout for land to lease and extensive enough for colonizing a number of Ohio families for stock-raising purposes.

A young white man was arrested to-day on authority of a telegram from Creve, charging him with the theft of a suit case from the Y. M.
C. A. rooms in that town. The valise was recovered, but the young man refused to divulge his name, and he is held as "John Doe."

Supervisors has sold $185,000 of Smyth County road bonds to Cutler, May & Co., of Chicago, Ill., at a premium of $1,357, the purchasers to pay in addition the expenses attending the sale, and interest from April 1 to date of delivery. These are thirty-year 5 per cent coupon bonds, of these bonds, $90,000 will be used for Marion District, $50,000 for Rich valley, and $45,- 000 for Rye Valley District. Delivery is to be made as soon as practical.

SOUTH RICHMOND

JOHN T. WILLARD NAMED TO SUCCEED SAUNDERS

Appointed by Judge Wells Sergeant of Hastings Court

SILVER FOR RETIRING OFFICER

South Richmond Bar Association Expresses its Regard for New United States Marshal.

John T. Willard, of 217 East Twelfth Street, South Richmond, was yesterday appointed sergeant of Hastings Court, Part II, by Judge Ernest H.
Wells to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of Sergeant John G. Saunders, who was appointed United States marshal for the Eastern District of Virginia. Mr. Willard was formerly justice of the peace in South Richmond, and is a prominent merchant.
He came here from Danville seven years ago, and was for some time yardmaster of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway terminals.

Besides Mr. Willard, there were three other candidates for the sergenty, which position pays $1,500 a year.
They were George Jones, who holds a position with the Southern Railway Company; George W. Blankenship, former deputy high constable of South Richmond, and W. E. Fergusson.
Deputy Sergeant John W. Hastings will retain his position under Sergeant Willard, and there will be no other changes.

SAUNDERS GETS GIFT

Silver Set Presented by Bar Association to Retiring Sergeant.

As a token of their esteem and regard, members of the South Richmond Bar Association yesterday morning presented Sergeant John C. Saunders, who to-day becomes United States marshal for the Eastern District of Virginia, with a handsome silver carving set. The presentation was made at a meeting of the association in the courtroom of Hastings Court, Part II, when speeches were made by several members. Judge Wells said that he was sorry to lose so efficient an official, but wished him great success in his new position.

Sergeant Saunders replied, thanking the donors for the gift, and said he regretted having to leave the court.
Addresses complimenting the sergent were made by Willis C. Pulliam, Joseph C. Nunnally, Charles L. Page, Augustine Royall and W. J. Fisher.

Revoked Liquor License.
On a general complaint from residents of the neighborhood, Judge Ernest H. Wells yesterday in Hastings Court, Part II, refused to renew the license of U. Balducci, who runs a saloon at 1305 Hull Street. No open hearing was given the case in court, but the saloon had been reported several times for disorder, and it was said that there were too many bars in the section.
Balducci was arraigned before Judge Wells yesterday on the charge of selling liquor to John Minor, a young colored boy. The case was nolle prosequed.

Judge Wells granted licenses to the Southside saloons against which there were no opposition. The refusal to renew Balducci's license leaves twenty-two saloons in South Richmond.

Preparing for Playground.
Preparations are being made, under the direction of Charles A. Taylor, superintendent of city playgrounds, for fitting up a vacant lot at Cowardin Avenue and Exchange Street to be used as a model playground. The property is owned by Meade Memorial Episcopal Church, having been purchased as a site for a new building.
With its opening next month, South Richmond will have three athletic fields, which will accommodate all who may care to exercise. R. W. Miles, Jr., will be in charge of the South-side grounds. Equipment for the other grounds, which are now open, at Twenty-second and Stockton Streets and Twenty-second and Everett Streets, is now being installed.

Pressing Shop Again Robbed.
For the second time within ten days, the pressing and cleaning establishment of Sampson & Lave, at 323 Hull Street, was entered by thieves on Wednesday night, and several suits of clothing and garments valued at about $50 were stolen. The Southside police were asked yesterday to make special efforts to capture the robbers. The shop was robbed last week of about $300 worth of clothing.

Levy Made Justice.
Judge Ernest H. Wells yesterday appointed Jacob Levy, proprietor of a clothing store on upper Hull Street, as justice of the peace on the Southside.
He succeeds the late J. P. Baughan.
Mr. Levy will qualify before Clerk Walter E. DuVal in Hastings Court, Part II, to-day, and begin his new duties.

Hear Damage Suit To-Day.
The suit of Simeon Duncan against the Richmond Forgings Corporation will be heard to-day in Hastings Court, Part II. Damages in the sum of $2,000 are asked for injuries sustained by the plaintiff when an archway gave way with him in the plant.

Dies From Accident.
Wilson Lee, colored, thirty-nine years old, died on Wednesday night in the City Home from injuries received in an accident in the Davis brickyard, at Fourteenth and Maury Streets. The negro fell into a disintegrating machine when a pile of clay gave way under him, and his left leg was mangled in the revolving teeth.

HAIR WOULD FALL
BY HANDFULS

Scalp Covered with Dandruff. Itching so Intense Could Not Sleep.
Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured. Now Has Long Hair.

P. O. Box 49, Clinton, La.—"I had the malaria fever and lost all my hair. My head would itch me terribly and the scalp would be covered with dandruff. It looked precisely like corn meal and could be seen plainly. The itching was so intense I couldn't sleep at night. I would scratch until my head was sore all over and my hair would fall by handfuls.

"I used ——— and different shampoos and tonics without effect. About one month later I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and then sent and bought a box of Cuticura Ointment. I used the Cuticura Soap with warm water and gave my hair a good shampoo and used a light application of the Cuticura Ointment. Relief was almost instantaneous. I used three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and the Cuticura Soap to complete my cure. I now have a full head of long hair." (Signed) Mrs. Laura A. Greene, June 14, 1913.

In selecting a toilet soap why not procure one possessing delicate emollient properties sufficient to allay minor irritations, remove redness and roughness, prevent pore-clogging, soften and soothe sensitive conditions, and promote skin and scalp health generally?
Such a soap, combined with the purest of saponaceous ingredients and most fragrant and refreshing of flower odors, is Cuticura Soap. Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold by dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticure Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.
